Dear members of ARGE Bulgaria,

The current issue of our newsletter is in the mail and we hope that you will like it. Today I turn to you with an announcement for 2018:

By popular request, our General Assembly will take place earlier than usual in the coming year, from 7.-9. September 2018. This is still far in the future, but our conference venue this time is historic Weimar, a real tourist magnet (and therefore quickly booked out). Therefore, we have to take care of the accommodation now.

I have reserved a preliminary contingent of rooms in Hotel Am Frauenplan (<http://www.hotel-am-frauenplan.de/>), which should be confirmed until December. The hotel is located in the historic city center (Brauhausgasse 10), just a few steps from Goethe's and Schiller's residences.

The price for a double room is 73.- € per night.

Our General Assembly with lectures will take place on Sunday, September 9th, from 11 o'clock in the pub "Zur Sonne" (Rollpatz 2).

So far, twelve people have already registered for the weekend. If you also want to come, please let me know as soon as possible (please with days of arrival and departure), so that the room contingent can be increased if necessary. Even if you are not entirely sure yet, please sign up for now (with me)! Up to eight weeks before the appointment, the rooms can still be canceled free of charge.

There is no need for further arguments for a trip to Weimar. Here is just a small sample of the many attractions: Anna Amalia Library, Bauhaus Museum, Goethe's house on the Frauenplan, Schiller's House, Park on the Ilm, Goethe's Garden House, City Palace ... We in any case will stay there longer than just a weekend.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Weimar,

Waltraud Kokot and Kasper de Jong
